Chapter 1 by alicehardaker

It was the same thing for Dave every day. Get up, bath, clean teeth, feed the cats and then go work. He missed his partner, his true love of his life. She would always help out by looking after the cats while he was at work, help with everything really.

He knew it was time to start again but who would want him now? Now that the crime he committed was still on his record? Dave just considered himself to be destined for loneliness for life now. That was, until his his daily activities got changed forever.

Dave wondered where his house cat Flossy had gone, she was nowhere to be seen. She hadn't eaten her food this morning. He was worried so he went in search and what he found shocked him.

Flossy was sat next to a dead body, the dead body was of his ex Alice. Dave stood frozen. Just what had happened to Alice? Why was she in his flat dead? Why was he face covered in black? Just why was she wearing his clothes? He needed answers
